

Shocked

When your brain needs you to pay attention to something important, one way it can do that is to send out a burst of noradrenaline, according to a new MIT study.

This neuromodulator, produced by a structure deep in the brain called the locus coeruleus, (low·kuhs suh·roo·lee·uhs) can have widespread effects throughout the brain. In a study of mice, the MIT team found that one key role of noradrenaline, also known as norepinephrine, is to help the brain learn from surprising outcomes.

Sin

What is sin?

Q. 14. What is sin? Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of, the law of God.	The humble ADVICE OF THE ASSEMBLY OF Divines, Now by Authority of PARLIAMENT Meeting at Westminster, Concerning a Shorter Catechism, Pre- faced by them lately to both Houses of PARLIAMENT. A certain number of Copies are Ordered to be Printed only for the use of the Mem- bers of both Houses and of the Assembly of Divines, to the end that they may admit thereof. LONDON, Printed by J.F.C.M.

The Westminster Shorter Catechism is a catechism written in 1646 and 1647 by the Westminster Assembly, a synod of English and Scottish theologians and laymen intended to bring the Church of England into greater conformity with the Church of Scotland. Sin is any want of conformity unto, or transgression of, the law of God.

If anyone sins and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD'S commands, even though they do not know it, they are guilty and will be held responsible. • Leviticus 5:17 If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them. • James 4:17 Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness. • 1 John 3:4

If anyone sins and does what is forbidden in any of the Lord's commands, even though they do not know it, they are guilty and will be held responsible. Leviticus 5:17

If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them. James 4:17

Everyone who sins breaks the law; in fact, sin is lawlessness. 1 John 3:4

Refuse to pay attention-failing to hear, the idea of active disobedience which follows on this inattentive or careless hearing, sin is regarded as already committed in the failing to listen when God is speaking..

Where is God in your life? Audio? Listening to multiple voices at the same time? Or video, where you give it your full attention? Like this scene from Dumb and Dumber Fingers in ears and saying la-la-la So, what does sin look like?

No law, contempt or violation of law, lawlessness, purposefully acting contrary to the law, without a leader or commander. What is law? A fixed and objective standard of life set up by God

Sidestep, to step on one side, to go around a warrior who hurls his spear and fails to strike his foe, one who misses his way, a fearful mistake, in the moral sphere, it had the idea of missing the right, of going wrong, the failure to succeed.

Since we don't throw spears anymore, here's a scene from the West Wing to illustrate.

missing the divinely appointed goal, a deviation from what is pleasing to God, doing what is opposed to God's will, perversion of what is upright, a misdeed., a missing of the goal conformable to and fixed by God.

We were made in the image of God, with a purpose, to be loved by God, to have a deep, personal, intimate relationship with him
We were not made for ourselves, we were made for him. And only in him can we find fulfillment, meaning, purpose.

We turn away from God and towards ourselves, others, and other things.
Why? Because we're made to worship. If you don't believe me...

David Foster Wallace was an American author of novels, short stories and essays, and a university professor of English and creative writing. Wallace is widely known for his 1996 novel Infinite Jest, which Time magazine cited as one of the 100 best English-language novels from 1923 to 2005

In the day-to-day trenches of adult life, there is actually no such thing as atheism. There is no such thing as not worshipping. Everybody worships. The only choice we get is what to worship.

If you worship money and things — if they are where you tap real meaning in life — then you will never have enough. Never feel you have enough.

Worship your own body and beauty and sexual allure and you will always feel ugly, and when time and age start showing, you will die a million deaths before they finally plant you.

Worship power — you will feel weak and afraid, and you will need ever more power over others to keep the fear at bay.

Worship your intellect, being seen as smart — you will end up feeling stupid, a fraud, always on the verge of being found out.

On September 12, 2008, at age 46, Wallace hanged himself on the back porch of his house in Claremont, California.

Worship someone/something – it will be a tyrant.

Worship Jesus -

Who do we let ourselves be vulnerable to?

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.
