Come on!

“The Spirit of the Lord is on me, because he has anointed me to proclaim good news to the poor. He has sent me to proclaim freedom for the prisoners and recovery of sight for the blind, to set the oppressed free, to proclaim the year of the Lord’s favor.”

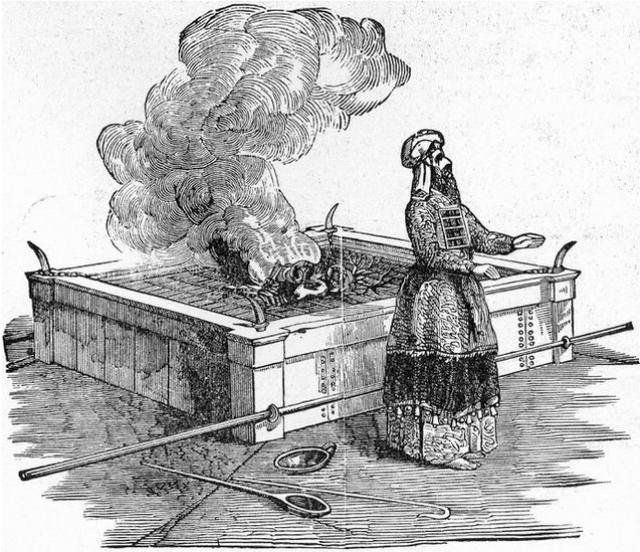

• Luke 4:18,19

He (Jesus) said to them, "Go into all the world and preach the gospel to all creation."

- Mark 16:15

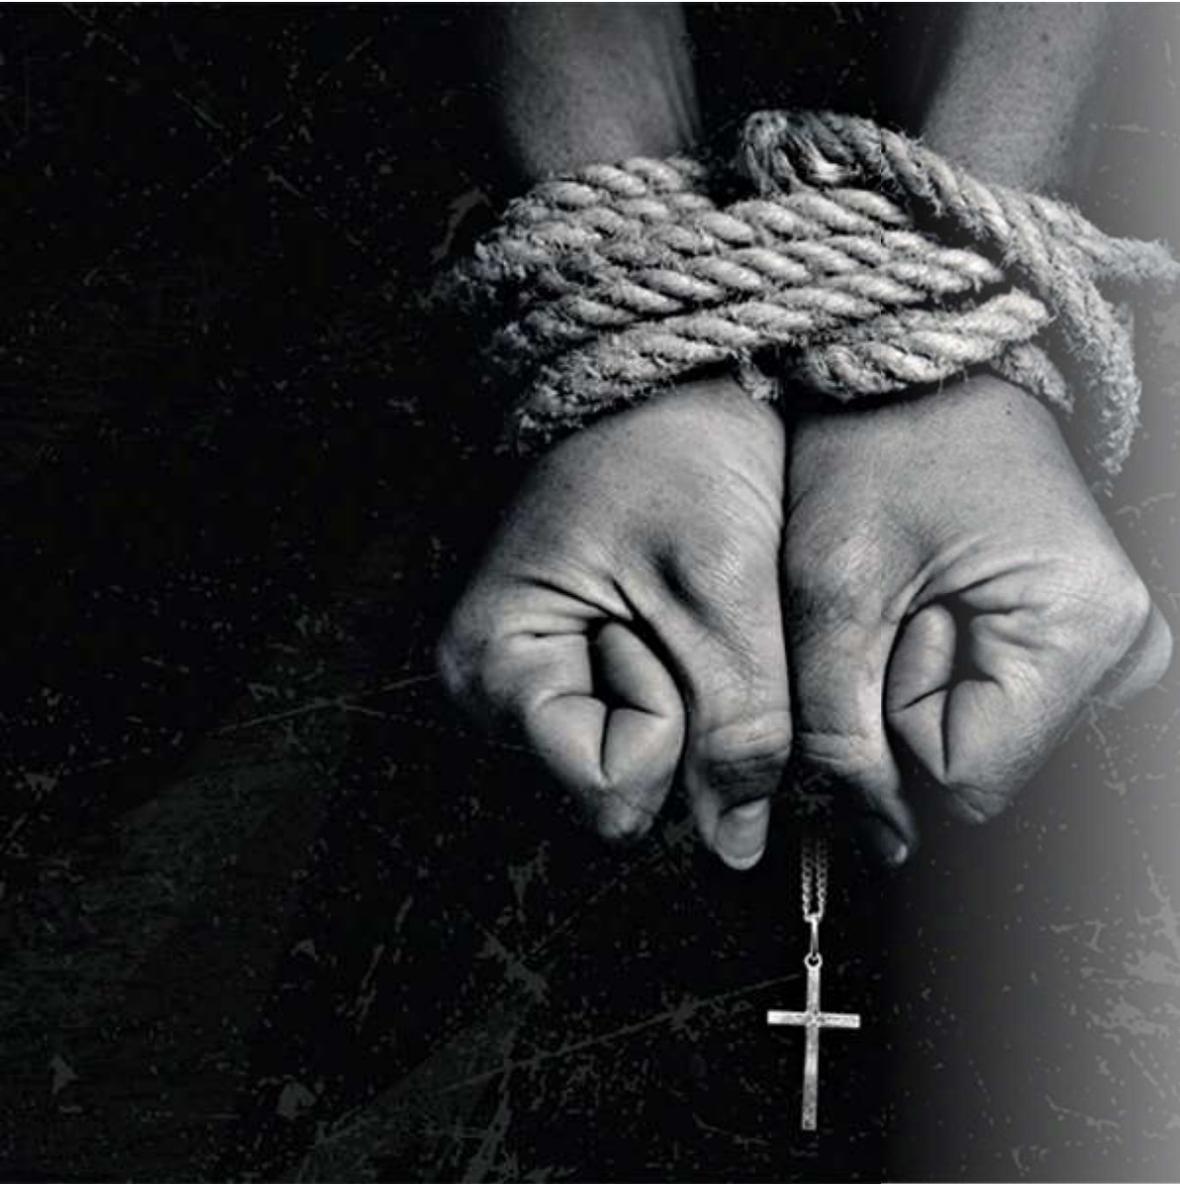

Then the disciples went out and preached everywhere, and the Lord worked with them and confirmed his word by the signs that accompanied it.

- Mark 16:20

Where is everywhere?

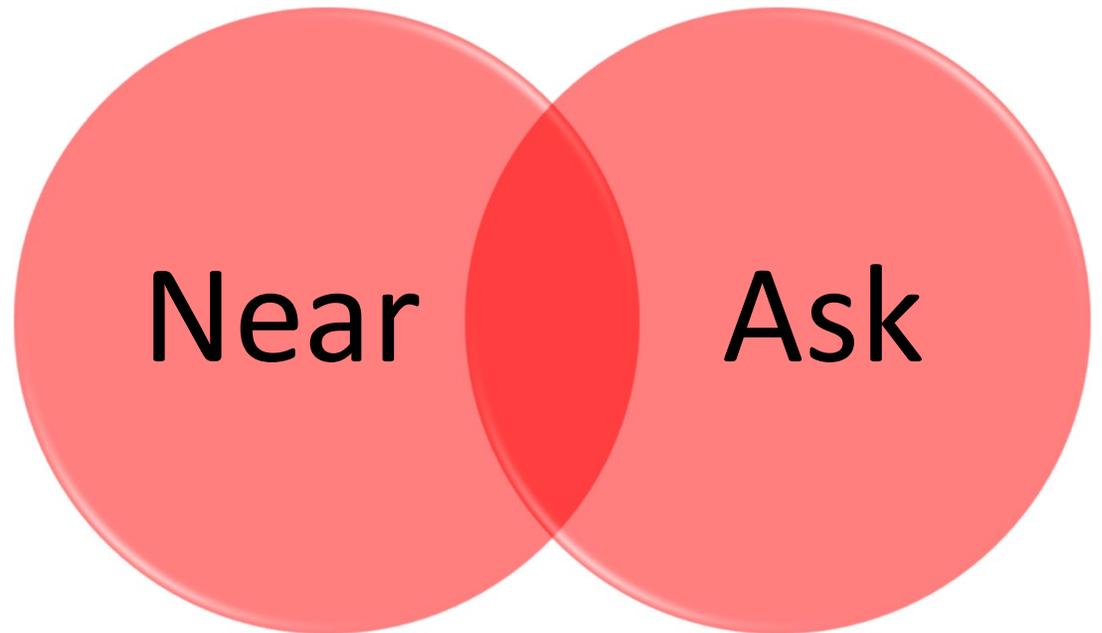

Those who had
preached the word wherever they went.

• Acts 8:4

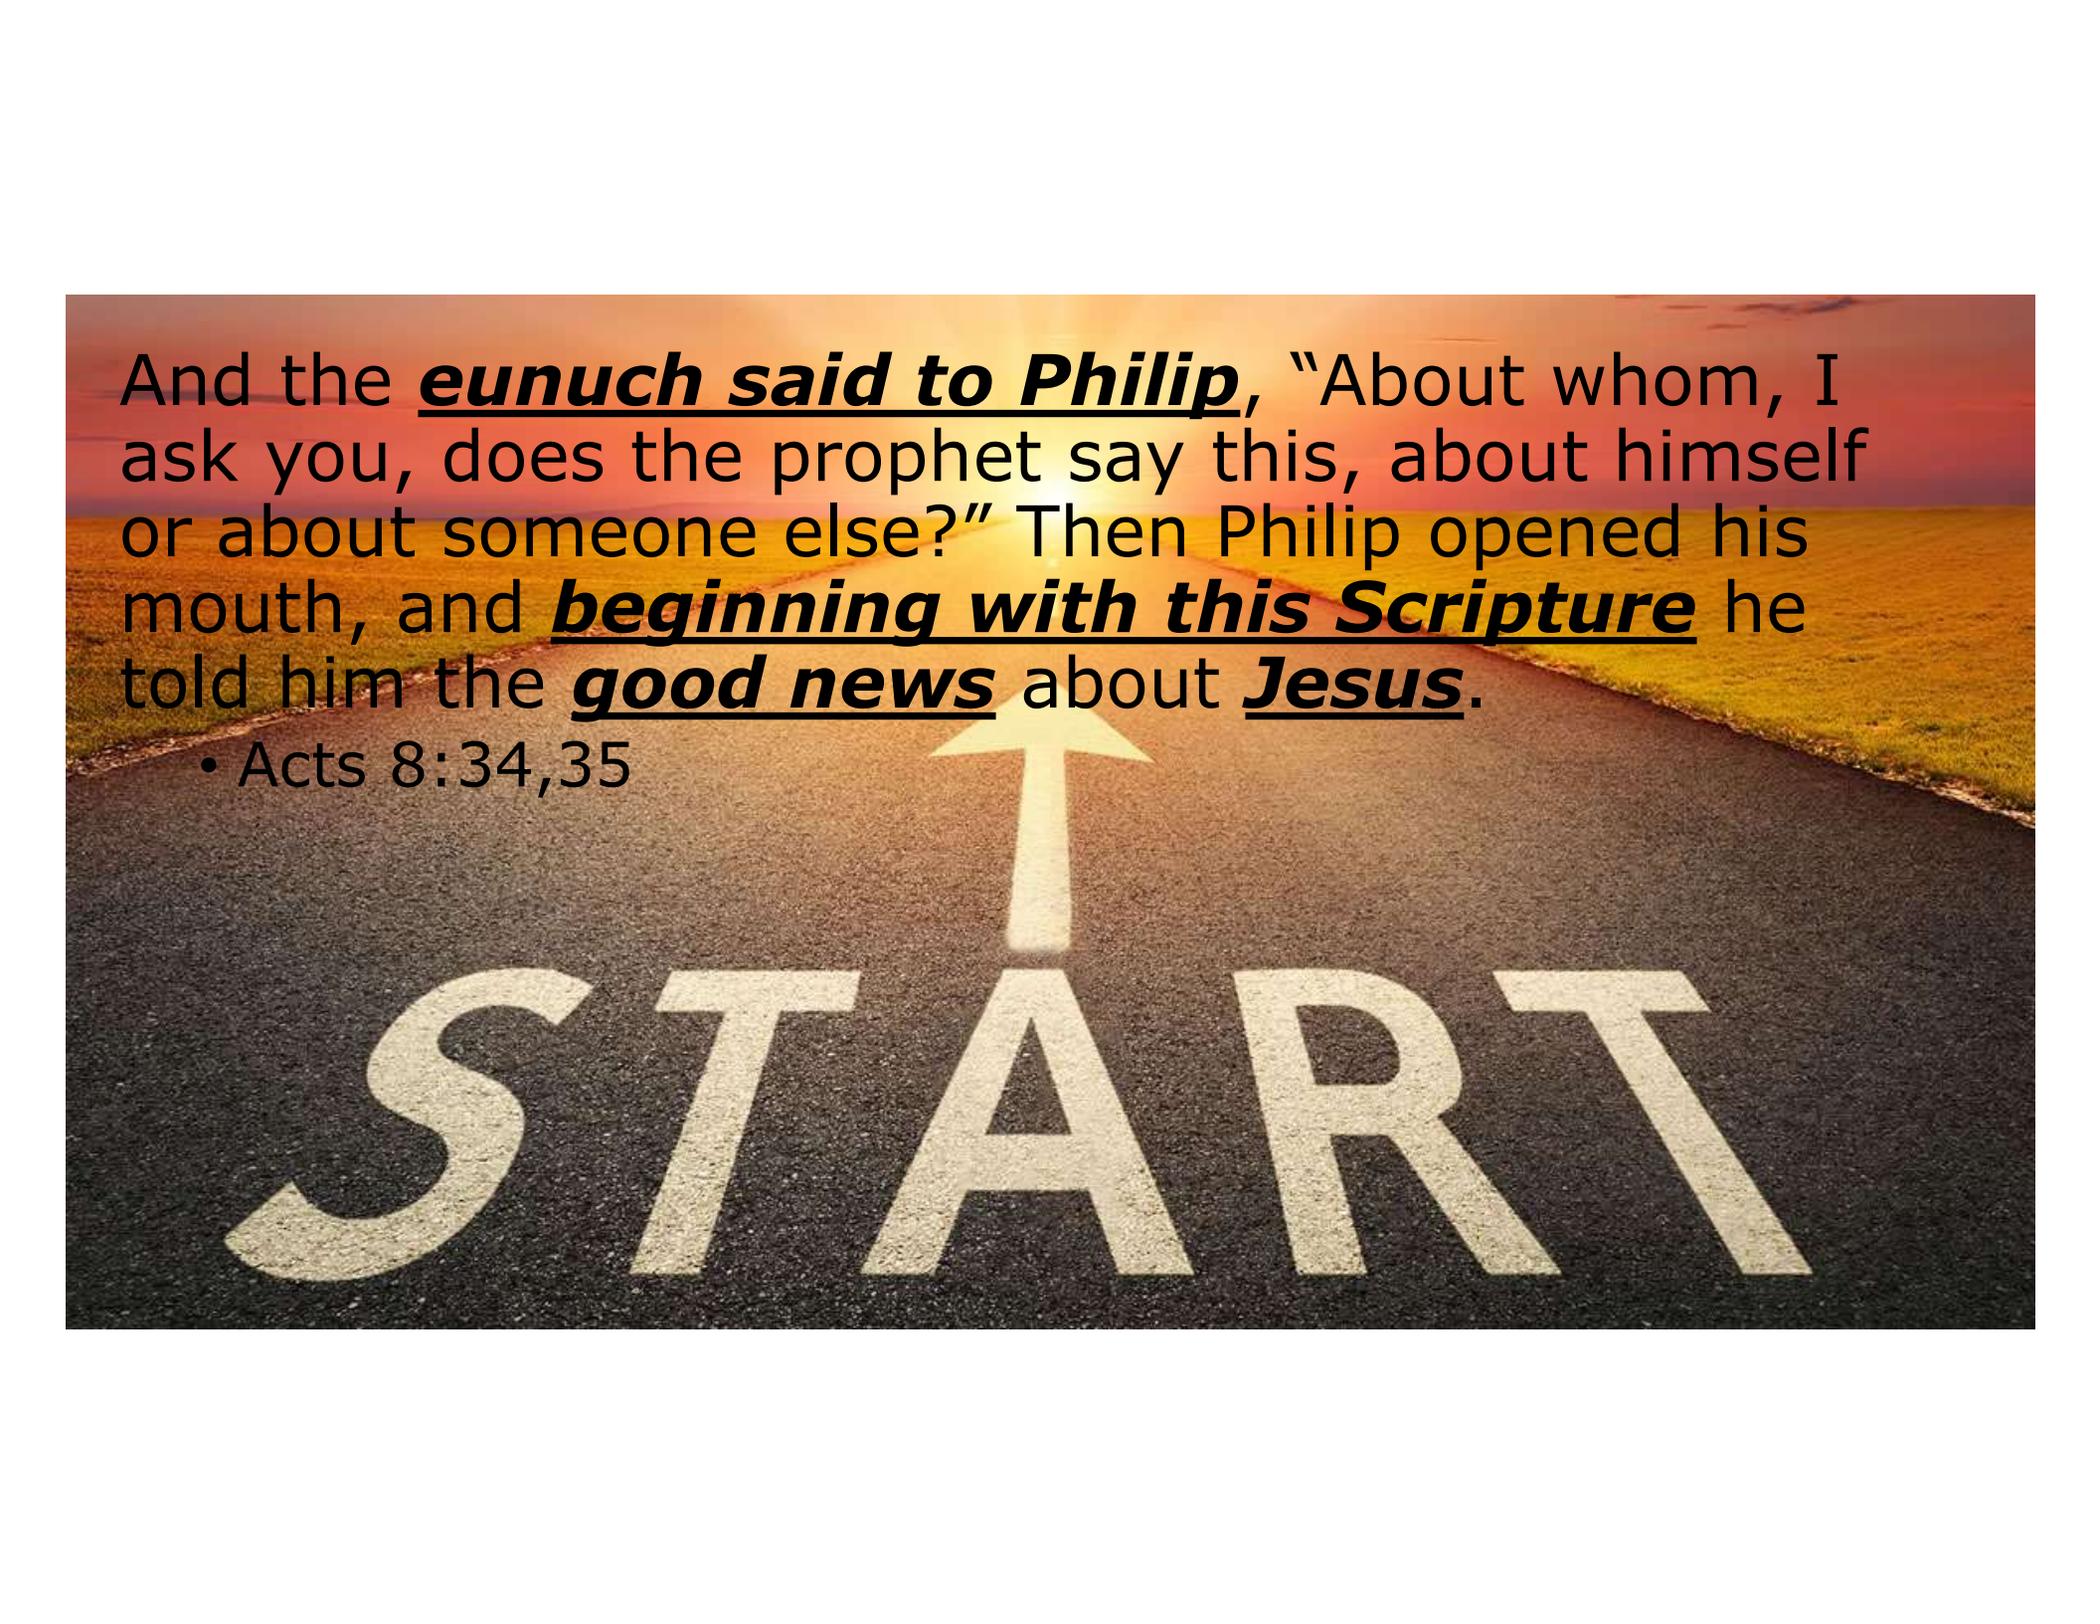

Then Philip ran up to the chariot and heard the man reading Isaiah the prophet. “Do you understand what you are reading?” Philip asked.

- Acts 8:30

And the eunuch said to Philip, "About whom, I ask you, does the prophet say this, about himself or about someone else?" Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with this Scripture he told him the good news about Jesus.

• Acts 8:34,35

A photograph of a paved road stretching into the distance under a sunset sky. The word "START" is painted in large, white, sans-serif letters on the asphalt. A white arrow is painted on the road, pointing upwards from the center of the word "START".

Buzz: Houston, Tranquility. Over.

But God chose the foolish things of the world to shame the wise; God chose the weak things of the world to shame the strong. God chose the lowly things of this world and the despised things—and the things that are not—to nullify the things that are, so that no one may boast before him.

That didn't go very well.

I didn't have the courage to do it the way I should have.

As Jesus was getting into the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed begged to go with him. Jesus did not let him, but said, "Go home to your own people and tell them how much the Lord has done for you, and how he has had mercy on you."
