If anyone sins and does what is forbidden in any of the LORD's commands, even though they do not know it, they are guilty and will be held responsible.

If anyone, then, knows the good they ought to do and doesn't do it, it is sin for them.

Where is God?

David

In the day-to-day trenches of adult life, there is actually no such thing as atheism. There is no such thing as not worshipping. Everybody worships. The only choice we get is what to worship.

If you worship money and things — if they are where you tap real meaning in life — then you will never have enough. Never feel you have enough.

Worship your own body and beauty and sexual allure and you will always feel ugly, and when time and age start showing, you will die a million deaths before they finally plant you.

Worship power — you will feel weak and afraid, and you will need ever more power over others to keep the fear at bay.

Worship your intellect, being seen as smart — you will end up feeling stupid, a fraud, always on the verge of being found out.

Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. For my yoke is easy and my burden is light.

- Matthew 11:28-30

A large crowd of people in a desert landscape, with a person in the foreground looking towards them. The scene is set in a valley with mountains in the background and a river in the foreground. The people are dressed in traditional, simple clothing, and many are holding flat, round objects, possibly bread or plates. The lighting is warm, suggesting late afternoon or early morning.

your kingdom come, your will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

• Matthew 6:10

Father, if you are willing, take this cup from me; yet not my will, but yours
be done

• Luke 22:42
